Canajoharie School Budget and Library Tax Vote: May 19, 12:00 - 9:00 PM (at the High School)

Need a reason to vote against the library tax? (Prop #4 on ballot)

This is NOT a treatise against the library, only the management thereof.

The proposition, as written, gives the library $100,000 every year with no further taxpayer input. (In ten years that is $1,000,000!)

Since the library is operated with a self-appointed board, with no elected members, this is close to "taxation without representation" which we have a history of not allowing in this country.

Yes, the library has expanded its services, but they have done it with "borrowed funds," borrowed from what they call "reserves" which in reality is the trust left by the Arkell's to help run the library.

Now the library wants to tax the residents to help maintain those same levels of service. In other words, create a "need" (with borrowed funds) then tax the residents to maintain the service and rebuild the reserves. That's like borrowing to buy an expensive car and then asking others to buy the gas for it!

There is no accountability by the library in their use of public funds, similar to what some might call a closed society.

Why no publicity this year to gain support for the library to get these funds? Are they hoping it will slide through unnoticed?

The economics of the region demands that most of us live within our means. Is the library somehow different?

Please vote. This may be your last chance to have any say as to how the library is run!

Memorial Day memories

by Skip Barshied

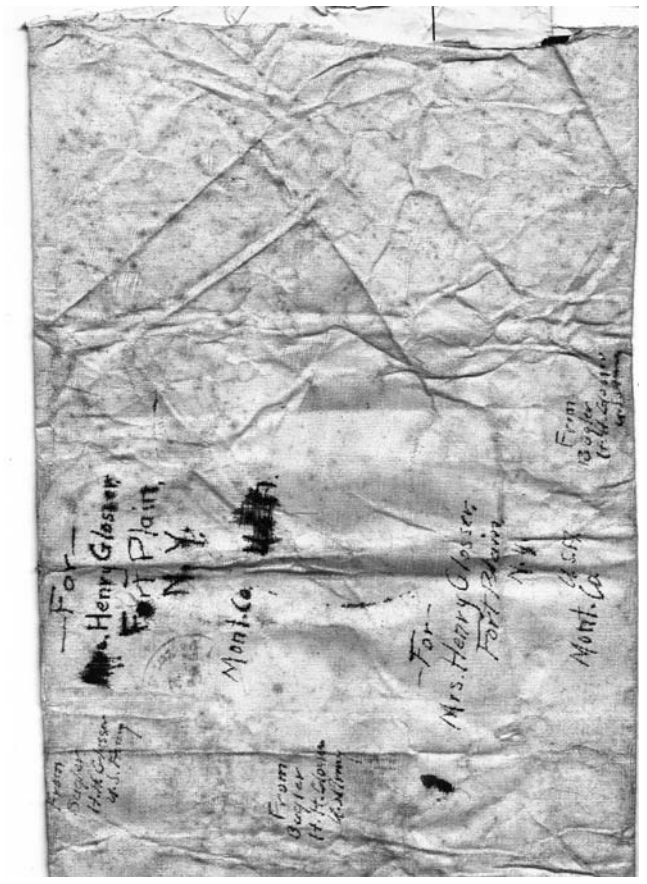
The piercing notes of the bugle on Memorial Day each year bring memories to all ages. Memories of the conflicts in which our service men struggled. No longer can we see even one soldier of the Civil War as the writer did in his youth. Gone also are those who served in the Spanish American War in 1898. Next in U.S. military history comes a conflict about which I'd like to tell a tale. The stage is now set for 1917-1919. A war that was once called a war to end all wars. During this writer's youth there were still surviving many veterans of WWI. In garages, attics and basements the memorabilia brought back or sent back home by those veterans were yet preserved. Some of those accumulations were passed on to young friends who the old veterans hoped would keep them after their passing. Other material found its way to the garbage heap.

We will now meet one of those veterans who well knew those battlefields of Europe-Verdun, Arganne and Somme. Areas of which few American citizens of today ever heard.

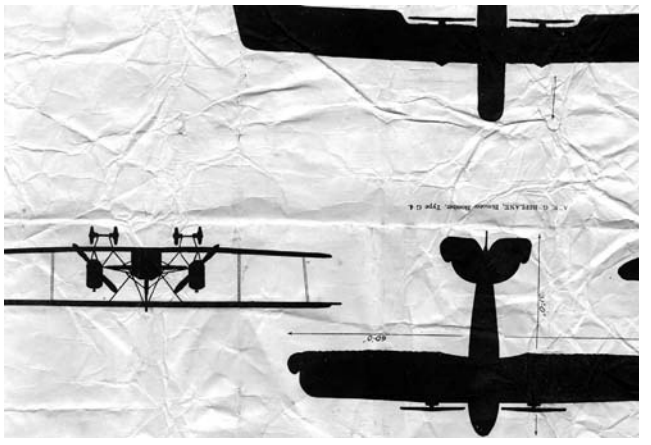
As we return to those days of WWI we soon realize that many innovations we now take for granted did not yet exist. Horse cavalry could yet be encountered in conflict. Aircraft were still in their infancy. It became a matter of life and death for the officers and men to be able to definitely identify the planes of the different nations. Large paper and cloth charts of plane silhouette were posted for that purpose. Two long fragments lie on the table before me after having been preserved for nearly 100 years. These had been used as wrapping for packages to send home for this soldier's mother. They are addressed to Mrs. Henry Glosser, Fort Plain, NY. The sender was bugler - H.H. Glosser, U.S. Army.

Who was H.H. Glosser?

Memorial Day A4



This fabric contains the home mailing address of Mrs. Henry Glosser, it's nearly 100 years old.



This durable fabric was used as packing material for soldiers sending items home from the warfront. It was printed with different examples of German Biplanes.

2015-2016 Budget News: On May 19th, qualified residents of the Fort Plain CSD will go to the polls to vote on a proposed 2015-2016 budget which contains a ZERO percent tax levy increase. All current academic programs will be maintained, including the third grade learn-to-swim program and full day PreK. The proposed budget also adds more elementary art instruction, expands the Family Peer Advocate, and brings in a part-time AgriBusiness teacher to instruct the new HFM BOCES program which will be located at the Fort Plain Jr/Sr High School. To accomplish these program enhancements, the proposed budget calls for the use of $950,000 from district savings and allows for a small increase in state education aid, due in part to the changes in the Gap Elimination Adjustment (GAP). Superintendent Burton recently reviewed the proposed 2015-2016 budget at the public budget hearing held on May 6th. "The Board of Education crafted the proposed budget with a goal of improving programs in a fiscally responsible manner" he said. "We have been fortunate to be able to maintain and increase our academic programs into next year" with a zero percent tax levy increase for the taxpayers.

Notice of Budget Vote and Election: Voters will respond to two propositions and two school board vacancies when the district budget vote and election is held on Tuesday, May 19th. Voting will take place at the Harry Hoag Elementary School, from 11:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m. Proposition #1 is to adopt the annual budget of the school district for the 2015-2016 fiscal year. Proposition #2 asks for authorization to aquire two school vehicles, at a cost not to exceed $160,000. The funds for the vehicle purchases will come from the previously approved Bus Purchase Reserve Fund and the purchases will have no effect on the tax levy. Voters will be asked to elect two (2) members to the Board of Education, to fill three (3) year terms. Candidates are incumbents Jami L. Stevens and Mary Beth Hudyncia. A qualified voter is one who is a citizen of the United States of America, eighteen (18) years of age or older, and a resident of the school district for at least thirty (30) days immediately preceding the annual election.

Merger Discussion Halted: During its April 15th meeting, the Board of Education agreed to continue to pursue shared services with neighboring school districts (see article below) and perhaps enter into a merger study sometime in the future, but not at this time. Therefore, the Board decided to commence a search for a new district superintendent, who will assume the duties of the district on or about July 1, 2015. The new superintendent will replace Douglas Burton, who will retire on June 30th, after 14 years of service.

Final State Budget Approved: The Fort Plain CSD expects to receive an estimated $225,217 in state funding, as part of the final state budget approved by the State Legislature. To receive the aid, legislators approving the budget are requiring that the district retool its teacher evaluation plan - known as the Annual Professional Performance Review (APPR) - under a new set of still undetermined rules. The district's plan must be approved by the State Education Department by November 15, 2015. The state aid amount include a $2,728 restoration of the Gap Elimination Adjustment (GEA). This represents a partial restoration of the amount that has been deducted annually from the district's promised state aid since 2010. The GEA has been used as a way to help the state balance the budget. Statewide, nearly $10 billion in school aid has been removed from districts since the GEA was introduced. "I'm glad to see that our district will benefit from an increase in state aid, but I'm disappointed to see that the GEA still remains," said Superintendent Burton. Legislators have agreed to end the GEA permanently in 2016-2017.

Congratulations Students of the Month: The following Jr/Sr High School students were honored as the April Students of the Month: Kayla Alaimo, Michael D'Arcangelis, Michael Hoffman, Isiah Cechnicki, McKay Nare, and Johnathan Cleary.

Students and Seniors Spend Time Together: The Jr/Sr High School students in Mrs. Petty's Life Skills classroom have been visting the Fort Plain Senior Center once a month, playing bingo with the members there. Senior Center director Maggie Ahrens reports that the seniors look forward to the visit all month! To expand on this interaction, Mrs. Petty decided to invite the senior citizens to the school to share a home-cooked meal. On May 4th, the first Life Skills Luncheon was held! While preparing for the event, the students learned the math of measurement, how to maintain a safe and clean kitchen, the importance of making healthy choices, and how to both serve & clean-up after a large gathering. The menu for the luncheon featured homemade lasagna. The sauce was made from scratch, with tomatoes canned last fall in the Life Skills room, after they were harvested from the students' school garden. The first-ever luncheon was a big success, with students and seniors alike enjoying the time spent in each others' company.

Shared Services - What Are They? Shared services are a way to help school districts meet the multiple educational, health, social, and service needs of children in a collaborative way. For several years, the Boards of Education for the Fort Plain and Canajoharie school districts have encouraged coordinated service and program delivery through inter-school agreements, shared funding, and policies that encourage shared services. Working through BOCES and NERIC, the two districts currently share a number of key support personnel, including: a Remote Technology Coordinator, Special Education Director, and Food Service Manager. Students benefit directly from shared Physical Therapy and Speech Therapy. For the past four years, the Wellness Committees have jointly hosted the Community Health & Wellness Fair, which is offered as a free service to the community. Fort Plain sends third grade students to the Nellis Pool for the learn-to-swim program. HFM BOCES will be offering a brand new AgriBusiness program this fall, located at the Fort Plain High School and open to both Fort Plain and Canajoharie students. Sports and co-curricular clubs benefit greatly from combining the two student populations into one large talent pool. Current joint teams include swim, cross country running, and wrestling. The community also supports the concept with joint AYSO and joint Youth Football. The Drama Club was a leader in shared programming, having operated as a joint club for over twenty years. On the internal structure front, the districts continue to equalize some of the software and data delivery services that help districts to run smoothly. Both schools currently use the same technology for student meal accounting, special education, and school bus routing. The districts will continue to looking at other areas to equalize, including student management systems and other software and hardware needs. With common goals of presenting students with the broadest education possible, at a reasonable price for the community, the two districts will continue to look at ways to both save money and increase programming by avoiding overlap and working together.

~District Superintendent Search Underway: HFM BOCES Superintendent Dr. Patrick Michel, and Deputy Superintendent Dr. Lori Hohenforst, recently hosted focus groups-made up of teachers, staff, students and community members-to discuss what each group felt the Board of Education should be looking for in potential superintendent candidates. Each focus group first discussed what the superintendents duties are and what expectations they had for the new leader. Some of the characteristics and qualities that the groups felt the candidates should posses included: intelligence, professionalism, a dedicated & a hard worker, honesty, having good communication skills, business experience, knowledgeable and up to date with today's educational issues, confidence, experience, organized, invested in the community, and has the ability and vision to lead the district into the future. The results of the discussions were shared with the Board. The next steps in the search include narrowing the field of paper applications to a few viable candidates. Dr. Michel, Dr. Hohenforst, and Mr. Burton will assist the Board with this process. Interview groups will then put together, with a goal of developing three finalists who will then visit the district, tour the school, and meet with various constituencies. The goal of the search is to place a new superintendent on or about July 1st.

LIBRARY "TAX"
to be voted on AGAIN.
Voters have told the library TWICE that they DON'T want to be burdened with another tax. The price of everything continues to go up faster than the wages of most people. WHEN people have to keep doing without because they are already short of money, it's no time to dump another tax on their back. There will be no end to what the library can't do without when taxpayers are paying for it, and they will constantly be back for more and more money. Like the county and school taxes that go up every year. Encourage others to VOTE NO on the Library Tax at the High School May 19, 12-9pm.
Have you wondered why you haven't seen the flood of signs promoting the tax the last two years? They were everywhere the first year it was voted on.

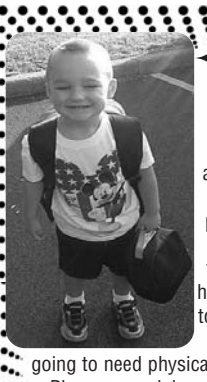
Conrad Charles



Two weeks after losing his father, four year old Conrad Charles was diagnosed with a 5.4cm brain mass. The mass was wrapped around the bone in his skull, and although it was benign, emergency surgery had to be performed. The mass was removed and the surgery went great, however, our young friend Conrad still has a long road ahead of him. He will need to have additional surgeries to correct his eyes, as they went crossed due to the fluid pressure in his brain. Conrad is going to need physical, occupational, and speech therapy as well. Please come join us for a day full of food, friends, and fun to celebrate Conrad's perseverance and raise money for him and his family to help get them through this hard time.

Lawn & Garden

Purdue Yard and Garden Calendar ~ May

by B. Rosie Lerner, Purdue Extension, Consumer Horticulturist

Home (Indoor plants and activities)

Many indoor plants can be moved to shady locations outdoors but only after danger of frost is past. Plants will dry out more often outdoors, so keep a close eye on soil moisture. Sinking the pots in soil will help slow down moisture loss.

Now is a good time to take cuttings of houseplants to increase a collection or share with friends. Root cuttings in media, such as vermiculite, perlite or potting soil. Roots grown in water tend to be weak from lack of oxygen and do not adjust well to planting in soil.

Fertilize houseplants according to label directions. Foliage plants require relatively high nitrogen fertilizer; flowering houseplants respond best to fertilizer high in phosphorus.

Yard (Lawns, woody ornamentals and fruits)

Prune early spring-flowering trees and shrubs after flowers fade.

Plant balled-and-burlapped or container nursery stock, and water thoroughly.

Remove and destroy overwintering bagworms from landscape trees and shrubs.

Follow a spray schedule to keep home-orchard crops pest free. While trees are in bloom, use fungicide sprays without insecticide to avoid injury to bees. Follow label directions. More information is available in Purdue Extension publication ID-146 "Controlling Pests in the Home Fruit Planting," www.extension.purdue.edu/extmedia/ID/ID-146-W.pdf

Thin fruits of apple trees, if needed, about three weeks after petal fall. Apples should be about 8 inches apart.

Apply fungicides to roses to control diseases, such as black spot.

Purdue turf experts recommend that if you are going to fertilize your lawn in May, apply three-fourths to 1 pound N/1,000 square foot with a product that contains 50 percent or more slow-release fertilizer. Try to schedule the application prior to a rain or irrigate following application to move the fertilizers off the leaf blade.

Garden (Vegetables, small fruits and flowers)

Plant frost-tender plants after danger of frost has passed for your area. This includes warm-season vegetables such as tomatoes, peppers, eggplant and vine crops as well as most annual flowers and tender perennials, such as cannas, gladiolus, dahlias, tuberous begonias and caladiums.

Pinch chrysanthemums and annual flower plants to keep them compact and well-branched.

Make successive plantings of beans and sweet corn to extend the season of harvest.

Thin seedlings of early planted crops such as carrots, lettuce, spinach and beets to their proper spacing.

Harvest early plantings of radishes, spinach and lettuce.

Harvest asparagus by cutting or snapping spears at or just below soil level.

Harvest rhubarb by cutting, or grasp the stalk and pull it up and slightly to one side.

Control cucumber beetles, carriers of bacterial wilt, as soon as cucumber plants germinate or are transplanted to prevent disease.

Remove blossoms from newly set strawberry plants to allow better runner formation.

Remove unwanted sucker growth in raspberries when new shoots are about a foot tall.

Memorial Day from A5

Harvey Glosser was born May 26, 1894. He was the son of Blacksmith-Horse Shoer, Henry Glosser of Fort Plain, NY. He served as bugler with the U.S. army engineers in Europe, returning home in 1919. For the next half century Harvey was a prominent and active resident of his Mohawk Valley area.

Glosser & Thurwood
By Erwin Dunckel

Harvey Glosser's father, Henry, was a horse shoer in Fort Plain, this is a handwritten receipt from 1883.

After WWI, Harvey Glosser returned to Fort Plain in 1919.

Harvey's wife Mary Waner Glosser was a cousin of this writer. My great grandmother was Elizabeth Waner Shineman (1842-1927). Thus from a very early age, I attended the Waner family reunions.

Harvey was not only a veteran of WWI but also a historian and avid collector, especially of Native American artifacts. My contact with Harvey Glosser helped begin a lifelong interest in artifacts and local history. Harvey was an engineer in both war and peace. Some older residents will remember him being resident engineer with New York State for this area.

Almost forgot mentioning the presents he sent home from Europe to his mother. The German spiked helmet (Whatchamacallit Pennysaver, April 18, 2015) and the steel German helmet and gas mask were among them. They were given to the writer after Harvey Glosser's passing ion November 1969.

Whatchamacallits

This week's Whatchamacallit is a device created for and used to measure the distance between two opposite sides of an object.

If you've ever used a drafting compass in high school to plot the circumference of a circle, then you've used a caliper.

This particular caliper is called an inside-outside caliper and can simultaneously measure two points of distance, the inside distance and the outside distance of an object. On some calipers, the tips are adjustable to fit across the points to be measured, the caliper is then removed and the distance is read by measuring between the tips with a ruler.

Calipers are used in many lines of work, jobs like mechanical engineering, metalworking, forestry, woodworking, as well as science and medicine.

The earliest caliper discovered dates back to the 6th century BC, it was found in a Greek Giglio wreck near the Italian coast. This caliper was wooden and had one fixed and one movable jaw.

A bronze caliper, dating back to the Xin dynasty in 9 AD China, was used for tiny measurements. This caliper included a slot and pin, along with inches and tenths of an inch.

According to American Machinist, Vol. 41, no.6, the modern Vernier caliper was developed by American Joseph R. Brown. Brown wanted to make a device that was accurate and affordable to machinists of all income levels and skill sets. His device was the first practical tool for exact measurements that could be sold at a price within the reach of ordinary machinists.

Brown died during the summer of 1876, his contributions to a post-Civil War reconstruction period helped machinists rebuild America.
