A SPECIAL THANK YOU

For helping Abigail G. Chicowski, together with her Quarter Horses Cinch and Destiny who will be competing at the NBHA (National Barrel Horse Association) WORLD YOUTH COMPETITION held this July in Perry, GA July 16-23rd. This is a Prestigious by Invite Only competition in which she has worked very hard to qualify for. Abigail is a 16 year old from Sprakers, NY who is a member of the local church youth group, does community service, gymnastics, dance, All County Chorus, and participates in 4H, while consistently maintaining High Honor roll or better at Fonda Fultonville H.S. She has been riding all equine disciplines beginning at 3 1/2 years old, but Barrel racing is where she has found her True Love of Competing. Abigail has had much success at a young age competing both locally and nationally. Most recently in May winning the NYS NBHA Youth 1D Championship in Fonda, NY! Abigail and her Family Would like to thank all these Sponsors below who helped make it possible for a hard working local girl.

The Foundation for the Mohawk Valley Libraries 'Skillful Strokes by Talented Folks Golf Tournament' planning committee, including (in no specific order) William and Mary Leitch, Bonnie Kerr, Cheryl Cufari, Fran & Darian Apollo, Marion Grimes, Eric Trahan, Dale Folmsbee, Patty Franco and Bill Dever met to finalize tournament details.

public libraries of the Mohawk Valley Library System.

The tournament is scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 6, at the Canajoharie Golf & County Club. Registration is at 12:30 p.m.; with Tee time at 1:30 p.m. Dinner and awards ceremony will follow at 6 p.m.

The fund raising from this golf tournament will be used to offset fees for events that "go beyond what the usual budget for programming and resources allow," said Board of Trustee Vice President Bonnie Kerr. "The Foundation has invited the libraries to participate in 'Dream & Do' grants by choosing the project each felt would have the most impact in their community."

Examples include the Fort Plain Writers' workshop and the purchase of genealogy resources for the Reaney Memorial Library in St. Johnsville. Other libraries used the funding in combination with other grants to upgrade wireless access for library users.

Kerr reported that in addition, "Directors and library boards of trustees were invited to hear about public library funding initiatives by speaker Rebekkah Smith Aldrich, and most recently, to hear of the Digital Freedom Project, a presentation funded partially by the Schenectady County Public Library to inform library personnel about the steps necessary to insure personal privacy when accessing the Internet at home or in a public place."

Fees for the tournament are $67 for CG&CC members and $80 non-members.

Sponsors announced at this time include Main Motors, Johnstown — a

Fort Plain 4th on the 3rd ~ Getting better each year!

by Elizabeth A. Tomlin

"The Fort Plain 4th on the 3rd celebration was terrific this year!" remarked Canajoharie resident Pete Vroman. "The event seems to get better each year!"

A huge crowd attended the event, which featured the usual food, vendors, live music, bingo, 2 balloon artists and competitive games, including horseshoes and a soccer shoot-off. An added feature this year was a zip-line that proved to be a major attraction.

Nine-year-old Jordan Brown of Nelliston was one of the first to try out the new "ride."

"It was exciting!" Jordan laughed. "But, I wasn't nervous at all!"

"We entertained 439 kids in the bounce houses and rock wall," reported General Chairman Jim Katovitch. "The educational wagon ride to the museum was enjoyed by 206 people. Everyone enjoyed the fireworks!"

Congressman Chris Gibson and Congressman Paul Tonko were also on hand to enjoy the event and take part in a ceremony honoring long-time village volunteer Susan Mahn.

Susan Mahn was honored for her 15 years as a village clerk.

Mahn is well-known for her work planting and caring for flowers in Haslett Park and at the 'Welcome to Fort Plain' signs at village entries. She has also made and painted some Christmas decorations in Haslett Park. She has worked with five mayors over the years.

During the ceremony, Trustee Robert Perry asked for a moment of silence for the passing of Fort Plain's Mayor, Guy Barton.

Gibson presented Perry with a flag that had flown over the U.S. Capitol, for the village.

Katovitch reports record profits were made this year. "The concession stand generated a record net profit of $2,547.18 — over last year's $2,153.71. Co-Chairmen Lori Fredericks, Cheryl D'Arcangelis and team did an excellent job!" He also reported strong barrel drive figures, with $4,146.58 collected. Compared to 2011 — also a Sunday — which was $3,319.96. "Co-chairmen Loring and Doris Dutcher and the team of road warriors did a wonderful job beating the 2011 total!"

The Lions book giveaway was also notable. "People had fun looking for 'treasures' and many children enjoyed picking out books," said Lions member Amy Dievendorf. "I believe we gave away more books than in the last couple of years. We could judge that by the number of empty boxes we ended up with!"

Perry remarked on the exceptional work of all volunteers. "All the department heads came together to help Jim Katovitch and the Community Activity Council pull off the event."

George Capece and the DPW crew, Fire Chief

Jeff Smith and the volunteer firemen, Police Chief Robert Thomas and department, Pat Hanifin, Lori Fredericks and April Johnson and their bands of volunteers, were all praised.

Perry sends thanks to Village Clerk Dianne Hoffman and assistants Annette and Barb for their work with vendor applications.

"There are numerous other, 'behind the scene' workers that step up to do jobs and provide equipment, like True Value, Bloomingdale Gardens, Veit Farms — and others that I do not have names for, that helped pull the event together," said Perry. "Without them, the event would not happen."

"I deeply thank all of you for your hard work and support of this family friendly community celebration," said Katovitch. "It is the laughter and smiles of the children from eight to eighty that makes our efforts worthwhile. Your generosity and participation will enable this celebration to continue."

Jordan Brown of Nelliston was one of the first to try out the new Zip-Line.

Village Trustee Bob Perry and General Chairman Jim Katovitch worked continuously throughout the busy day and evening.

Whatchamacallits

This week's Whatchamacallit garnered a lot of attention as it sat near my desk. Although most folks guessed it was a grinder or mill of some sort, no one guessed it was a paint or pigment mill.

The original mill patent was issued to Oliver C. Harris of Sangerfield, NY on March 15, 1832. Apparently, Mr. Harris made some modification, as our model is forged with the re-issued patent date of August 1848 on the base, and was manufactured in Waterville.

The pigment would be placed in the reservoir and ground by turning the handle. The ground pigments would be pressed out of the sides and scraped by the scraper, causing the pigments to fall into some sort of receptacle. The ground pigment would be gathered and stored for sale.

Paint used to be a luxury item as it was time consuming to grind the pigment by hand (using a mill stone or mortar and pestal) into a powder fine enough to be mixed with the vehicle (liquid base).

Also, before mass production of canned paint,

Do you have your own Whatchamacallit?

the pigment and vehicle were purchased separately and mixed at home by the consumer. It wasn't until 1867 that manufacturers began mixing the liquid base and the pigment for customers.

If my father had more than one sister, she could be my aunt.

GO FIGURE!

by Linda Thistle

The idea of Go Figure is to arrive at the figures given at the bottom and right-hand columns of the diagram by following the arithmetic signs in the order they are given (that is, from left to right and top to bottom). Use only the numbers below the diagram to complete its blank squares and use each of the nine numbers only once.

	÷		+				7
x		+		÷
	-		x				10
÷		÷		+
	x		÷				2

STICKELERS
 by Terry Stickers

An old puzzle asks:
 "What is my relationship to my father's sister's son's aunt?"

One answer is the person is my mother. But there is another answer. What is it?

MARLAND

by Mike Marland

A TRICKY QUICKIE! To the right is an incorrect equation. Can you make it correct by adding one straight line to it?
 Answer: Add a straight line to the second plus sign, turning it into a "4." The equation will now read 11 + 1141 = 1,152

HOLY WORD-SQUARE, BATMAN! At the right is a word square grid. Can you find the four five-letter words that match the definitions below? All words used must read the same both across and down.

J	O	K	E	R
K

Answers: 1. Joker 2. Olive 3. Kites 4. Event 5. Passes

In the grid shown here, there is room for eight "impish" words. Each contains the word "IMP." Using the following hints, see if you can solve this puzzle before our friend finds another target.

- A light way to travel.
- What a teen-ager hates.
- To complain and whine.
- To obstruct the progress of.
- To be stingy with.
- Tarzan's friend.
- Regal or majestic.
- To be frugal.

Answers: 1. Blimp 2. Pimple 3. Whimper 4. Impede 5. Skimp 6. Chimp 7. Imperial 8. Scrimp
