Senior News Line: Should you redeem old Savings Bonds?

by Matilda Charles

Do you have any old savings bonds tucked away, ones bought years ago to help a grandchild with college expenses? Or maybe you want to take care of all your credit card debt by cashing in bonds. Redeeming savings bonds isn't as easy as it used to be.

Savings bonds have been paperless for many years, and you can't just buy or redeem them anywhere now. There are some banks where you can cash in your bonds, but the preferred method now is to do it online.

As a first step, go online to check the value of each bond. Try SavingsBonds.com and use the calculator. Click the yellow box ("Get your bond values here") and select the details of your bond from the drop down menu. It's not necessary to include the bond's serial number if your other details (series, face value, date issued) are correct.

You'll get a color coded message at the top. Red, for example, means that your bond isn't earning interest and should be cashed in. Blue means the bond is less than five years old, and you'll forfeit three months in interest if you redeem it too early. Before you can get a printout list of your bonds, you'll need to enter your email address.

Look at the In the News section for specific information about how your interest can affect your taxes. When you cash in bonds, you'll get a Form 1099-INT showing the interest you earned. You might have to pay taxes on it.

If you have paper bonds that you don't want to redeem yet, you can have them switched to digital. Your best bet: Ask your bank if it redeems savings bonds, and let it help you.

Country Preacher

by Pastor Dan West

"Why should I go to church?" How would you answer that question? We know that the "church" per se is not the building with the steeple, but the gathering of believers, the Body of Christ.

Hebrews 10:24, 25 tells us to "not forsake the assembling of ourselves together." It also tells us we have a purpose, we have work to do there.

So many people go to church for what they can get. These verses tell us to assemble together for what we can give; to motivate others to love (do good things for others), to motivate and help others to do good things, and to encourage (exhort) one another.

If you are a child of God, do you realize that when you miss a church service, you are depriving others of what the Lord wanted to do through you in their lives?

Donna's Day: Creative family fun

by Donna Erickson
Dress up time's not just for halloween

"What do you wannabe?" asked Carrie deBruyn, or "Gigi," to her 2-1/2 year old granddaughter Endsley. "A dancer? An astronaut? Elsa from 'Frozen'?"

"I wannabe you!" Endsley exclaimed as she swiped poppy pink lipstick "outside the lines" and brushed pale pink powder on her cheeks.

Anticipating Halloween isn't the only excuse for playing at Gigi's makeup counter. A drawer full of lip gloss, brushes and shadow are magical art supplies year round for grandkids and an adoring grandmother willing to share and play.

"Any time can be dress-up time when my grandkids come by," says Carrie as she hangs a glittery scarf on a hook and tucks sparkly shoes in a cubby in a closet set up just for them. "They love to transform their looks and put on plays and fashion shows. I connect with them in creative ways when I can give them that freedom. I hope memories of coming to my home and using the dress-up stuff to design different images of themselves will stick."

With Halloween approaching, let the occasion inspire your kids and grandkids to stretch their imaginations with you as they explore what they "wannabe."

Make a costume box

Start a collection with fun dresses and suits. If you don't have a used bridesmaid's gown or Hawaiian shirt hanging in the back of your closet, look for fun and unique pieces at garage and estate sales. You'll no doubt find funny hats, costume jewelry and elbow-length gloves along the way.

Once the box is full of props and disguises, you'll find it invaluable for entertaining young children on a rainy day.

Make face paint

Face painting done in creative shapes and designs is a fun alternative to wearing a mask on Halloween night. In addition to using face paint to complete a costume, you can use this recipe for birthday parties or staging an impromptu play.

Here's the stuff you'll need:

- 1 teaspoon cornstarch
 - 1/2 teaspoon water
 - 1/2 teaspoon cold cream
 - Liquid food coloring in a variety of colors
- Small paintbrush and cotton swabs
- Small, clean and dry recycled yogurt style container for each color of paint

Here's the fun

Stir together the cornstarch and cold cream with a spoon in a container until well blended. Add water and stir. Add food coloring, one drop at a time, until you get the desired color.

Paint designs on faces with a small paintbrush. Sometimes I use a cotton swab instead of a brush. Remove with soap and water when you are ready to take it off. Store in covered, clean containers for several days.

Twister Valley crosses agriculture with motocross

by Elizabeth A. Tomlin

Some riders and their families were taken by surprise to see a cow at Twister Valley Sports Complex on Saturday, Oct. 1.

And this wasn't just any cow, this was Pandora the Painted Cow, known throughout Central New York for her 'hands on teaching' in support of agriculture.

"Basically, I'm mixing my farm background and new passion of motocross," said Fred Mang. "I wanted people to interact with the cow."

Mang said most of the kids and adults that come to Twister Valley have never had the opportunity to be that close to a cow before.

The Rando family of Ilion, including 13 year-old Alexos, 11 year-old Tyler, 8 year-old Miley and mom Kelly, were the first to get up close to Pandora and were anxious to put their hand prints on her.

"This is great," said

Kelly as she leaned in to stroke Pandora's head.

This was a treat for Pandora as well, as she loves attention and has not had the opportunity to be out in public since having her first calf and Smoke-free housing is a breath of fresh air. For everyone.

Both landlords and tenants can benefit from smoke-free policies because they save money and protect health.

Landlords:

- protect your property from damage
- lower insurance and repair costs
- reduce litter from your property

Tenants:

- live without secondhand smoke drifting into your apartment
- avoid the illnesses secondhand smoke causes

Let's work together to make Montgomery County a place to live smoke-free.

For information about smoke-free living, call Advancing Tobacco-Free Communities at 762-8313

Canajoharie High School Ski Club cleans up

by Elizabeth A. Tomlin
Hats are off to the hard working young folks of Canajoharie High School's Ski Club for the tremendous job they did washing cars — including mine — at Ace Hardware in the Dutch Town Plaza in Palatine Bridge on Saturday, Oct. 8.

money to help cover our first ski trip to Gore Mountain in January — weather permitting," said Advisor Pat Countryman. "The majority of our members were present or provided baked goods or drinks."

The car washing, combined with a bake sale and grilled hot dog sale, raised funds for this school year's ski trip. "We raised enough

Popcorn Poppin' Month — time to conjure up fun

October is National Popcorn Poppin' Month, a time to celebrate the most magical of all snack foods. It is a fitting time of year in this season of transformation when green turns to gold, gourds into glowing goblins and children into costumed characters.

The charm of popcorn lies in its unique ability to change from hard seed into a soft fluffy snack—a nifty trick and treat. But it is also a food that turns everyday life into special moments. It's a food that makes even the fullest stomach suddenly hungry by its irresistible smell. And it's naturally delicious, low in fat and calories, and economical — all magical qualities for today's healthy and budget conscious consumer.

Join the fun this month and your fellow Americans who consume some 14 billion quarts of popcorn each year. Add a dash of salt, herbs or get creative and conjure up something that'll bring smiles to everyone's face like this recipe from the Popcorn Board!

Spooky Popcorn Spider Web
 1/4 cup butter
 8 cups mini marshmallows, divided
 1 tbsp vanilla extract
 9 cups popcorn, divided
 1 cup semisweet chocolate chips, divided
 Black string licorice
 Candy Eyes

Line round pizza pan with parchment paper; set aside. Melt butter in large saucepan set over low heat; stir in 5 cups marshmallows, stirring constantly, for 3 to 4 minutes or until completely melted. Stir in vanilla. Remove from heat. Immediately stir in 8 cups popcorn until coated. Spread onto prepared pizza pan into irregular round shape, about 1-inch thick, to resemble spider web. Refrigerate for about 15 minutes or until firm.

Meanwhile, in microwave, melt remaining marshmallows for about 20 seconds or until melted. Using spatula, string strands of melted marshmallow over popcorn spider web to create cobweb effect.

In heatproof bowl set over saucepan of hot, not boiling, water, melt 3/4 cup of the chocolate chips; let cool slightly. Pour chocolate over remaining popcorn in large bowl, folding gently to coat. Spread mixture on waxed paper-lined baking sheet, separating into 8 small clusters. Affix 2 candy eyes on each popcorn cluster. Refrigerate for 10 to 15 minutes or until set.

Melt remaining chocolate chips. Cut licorice into 1-inch lengths. Use small spoon, dab circles of chocolate onto spider web. Affix chocolate-coated popcorn onto chocolate circles. Affix licorice lengths to chocolate popcorn clusters to resemble spider legs.

Refrigerate for 15 minutes or until set. To serve, cut into smaller pieces.

The Kitchen Diva: Red Cabbage a staple during Oktoberfest

by Angela Shelf Medearis

Certain foods remind me of fall. A tray of beautiful red cabbages with a hint of purple and blue on their ruffled leaves resembles a bouquet of flowers. Raw red cabbage is a flavorful addition to salads, or it can be slow cooked to sweet perfection as a side dish.

One of my favorite recipes for red cabbage comes from award winning cooking instructor Rick Rodgers's cookbook "Autumn Gatherings: Casual Food to Enjoy With Family and Friends" (Morrow Cookbooks). Featuring red cabbage, sausages and apples, it's a classic example of German cooking and celebrates the bounty of the season. Rodgers says that he "learned early in my cooking life not to try and rush the cabbage, as it needs plenty of time to soften into the melting mass of sweet and sour ingredients that makes it so unique, and becomes the perfect place to cook your favorite sausages."

Red Cabbage from 16

juice enhance the sweetness of the cabbage, and the vinegar preserves its color. The flavors of the dish intensify the next day, so if possible, prepare the cabbage ahead of time. Nestle the sausages in the pot, let them cook while the cabbage is re-heating, and enjoy the flavors of fall!

Oktoberfest Sausages with Red Cabbage

- 3 tablespoons vegetable oil, divided
- 6 slices thick sliced bacon, coarsely chopped
- 1 large onion, thinly sliced
- 2 Golden Delicious apples, peeled, cored and cut into 1/4-inch thick wedges
- 1 (2-1/2-pound) head red cabbage, cut into wedges, core removed and thinly sliced
- 1-1/2 cups apple juice
- 1/3 cup cider vinegar
- 1/2 cup packed light brown sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon dried thyme
- 1 bay leaf
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 12 assorted

sausages, such as bratwurst, Weisswurst, hot links and knockwurst, pricked with a fork

1. To make the red cabbage and apples, heat 1 tablespoon of the oil in a very large Dutch oven or flameproof casserole over medium heat. Add the bacon and cook, stirring occasionally, until crisp and browned, about 8 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer to paper towels to drain, leaving the fat in the pan.

2. Add the onion and cook, stirring often, until golden, about 10 minutes. Transfer to a bowl.

3. Add remaining 2 tablespoons oil to the Dutch oven and heat until hot but not smoking. Add the apples and cook, stirring often, until lightly browned, about 3 minutes. Add the cabbage, apple juice, vinegar, brown sugar, thyme and bay leaf, and stir well to coat the cabbage. (The vinegar helps the cabbage hold its color.) Bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to medium-low and cover. Simmer, stirring occasionally, until the cabbage is tender, about 1-1/2 hours. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

4. Bury the sausages in the cabbage and cover. Cook until they are heated through, about 12 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer the cabbage and sausages to a large serving bowl, removing the bay leaf, and tent with aluminum foil. Bring the cooking liquid in the pot to a boil over high heat and cook, stirring often, until reduced to about 1/2 cup, about 5 minutes. Pour over the cabbage and sausages and serve hot. Makes 6 servings.

Whatchamacallits

Keeping with our fishing theme from last week, our Whatchamacallit for this week seems easy enough to identify. We have an antique fishing creel and camp/fish knife. The creel is all original and intact, although there are no identifying marks on it to know who made it or where. It is quite sleek in design and has been well cared for.

The history of this knife manufacturer however is quite phenomenal. The entire history is found at www.mman.us/jrussellco.htm, but I'll give you the abbreviated version.

John Russell was born March 30, 1797 in Greenfield, MA, and learned his father's trade of goldsmith as he grew. By age 21 he decided to try something else and moved south and made enough money in cotton that by age 33 he retired from the cotton business, married a girl from Lancaster, PA and lived there for the next two years.

Deciding he didn't care too much for the idleness of retirement he moved back to Greenfield and started manufacturing chisels and axes under the name J. Russell & Co. in order to acquire the skill and knowledge necessary to expand his product line. His tools quickly earned a reputation for quality and endurance.

By 1834 he was ready to start manufacturing cutlery, which was his original intent. To make a very long and interesting story short enough to fit this space, during the 1840's — just in time for the westward expansion of the U.S. — J. Russell & Co.'s "Green River Works" began making what became known as the Green River Knife. This knife became a favorite of cowboys, buffalo hunters, Indians, settlers, miners and emigrants. The words: J. Russell & Co / Green River Works are clearly marked on the blade.

Do you have your own Whatchamacallit?

WORD FUN

Study the two words on each line to find the ONE letter in the left column that is NOT in the word in the right column. Write the extra letter on the blank space. Then read DOWN to answer this riddle:

WHAT DO YOU GET WHEN YOU CROSS PORCUPINES AND TURTLES?

SPINAL	PLAIN	SPREAD	DARES
BLONDE	BONED	DOABLE	BLADE
COARSE	CARES	RACKET	REACT
VOWELS	SOLVE	DEGREE	EDGER
		CARESS	SCARE

STICKELERS

by Terry Stickels

Here are two puzzles known as "word ladders." They are similar to trickledown puzzles with two exceptions: You can change a specific letter more than once, or you may leave a letter the same without changing it. Here's an example:

	EAST	EAST
	—	LAST
	—	LEST
	WEST	WEST
Now try these:	RICH	HATE
	—	LOVE
	BOOR

"We had five other members contribute that could not be present.

This is a group that truly works together to accomplish their goals!" attested Countryman.

Countryman said that Ace provided the car washing materials including soap, buckets, brushes, sponges, hoses and water — and the use of the gas grill. "They are great!"

Ace co-owner John

Macci says the business has donated the lot and accessories to schools, fire departments and "other charitable organizations" for the nearly 10 years they have been at the plaza. "We do this as a community service," said Macci.

"We had a very successful car wash," remarked Countryman.

"Thanks to all who helped make it a success!"

The Ski Club's next fundraiser is a McDonald's Night, also at Dutchtown Plaza, on Nov. 16, from 5-7 p.m. "Hope you will come out to support us!"

Twister Valley from 9

joining the milking herd at Settle's Farm in St. Johnsville, last January.

"Although it's been a year since Pandora has been to an event, she was perfect," reported Pandora's owner and handler, Stephanie Arndt. "She eased right back into the motions of being the Painted Cow, and was not phased by the noise of kids and dirt bikes all around her."

Mike Settle said he thinks the opportunity for people to get close to Pandora provides a "unique experience" for kids that may not get out into the country. "This opportunity to get close and real with Pandora was a first for many of them," said Settle.

Other activities at Twister Valley also took place over the weekend, including professional racers giving classes to riders and 'Moto Moms' providing all kinds of recreational games and competitions for children.

Mang said the track at Twister Valley has recently been enlarged and modified with a new jump added.

"Spencer Mang and Brody Zelezny designed, built and tested the newest jump," said Mang. "We're working on something new all of the time. Things here constantly evolve."

Twister Valley Sports Complex is located on Route 5, west of Fort Plain. Find them on Facebook.

* Void where prohibited by law. Promotions may not be combined or used with prior purchases. Customer will receive 1 window at 40% off list price for every 1 window purchased at list price. The least expensive windows are the windows that are 40% off. Promotion to be applied by sales representative at time of contract execution with 8 window minimum purchase. Available at time of initial visit only. Expires 11/19/16. (†) No Money Down, No Interest, No Payments applies if the balance is paid in full within 12 months. Renewal by Andersen of Eastern NY (RBA) is neither a broker nor a lender. Financing is provided by 3rd party lenders unaffiliated with RBA, under terms and conditions arranged directly between the customer and such lender, all subject to credit requirements, approval and satisfactory completion of finance documents. Finance terms advertised are estimates only.  High-Performance(tm) Low-E4(e) SmartSun(tm) glass. Values are based on comparison of Renewal by Andersen(c) double-hung insert window SHGC to the SHGC for clear dual panel glass non-metal frame default values from the 2006 and 2009 International Energy Conservation Code. Actual savings and payback period may vary geographically and depend upon condition of home, insulation, weather conditions, cost of fuel, fuel consumption, current usage and lifestyle. (y)APG25 (AAMA/WDMA/CSA 101/1.S.2/A440-08) pressure differential applied to the windows (48"x48" size) in the lab on structural test only. Most Renewal by Andersen double-hung, picture and casement windows meet this structural performance. Temperature performance tested in different chamber. (x) RBA is not responsible for typos.
