Why Buy Local?

Support yourself

When you buy from an independent, locally owned business, significantly more of your money is used to make purchases from other local businesses, service providers and farms -- continuing to strengthen the economic base of the community.

Create more good jobs

Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community, provide the most jobs to residents.

Get better service

Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.

Invest in community

Local businesses are owned by people who live in this community, are less likely to leave, and are more invested in the community's future.

Put your taxes to good use

Local businesses in town centers require comparatively little infrastructure investment and make more efficient use of public services.

Disaster Response and Recovery Office (DRRO) to meet the needs of the survivors of the floods of June 2013

Heavy rains on Thursday, June 27 and Friday, June 28, caused the Mohawk River to overflow its banks and flood the southern end of Herkimer and Montgomery counties. Thousands were without power and over 1,050 households signed up for state aid in Herkimer County alone. In the four municipalities affected there were approximately 44 homes totally destroyed, 75 with major damage and more than 757 with some damage.

In light of its long standing experience in disaster relief and recent work with survivors of Hurricane Irene, Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Albany, through a grant from Catholic Charities USA (CCUSA) implemented the Disaster Response and Recovery Office (DRRO) to meet the needs of the survivors of the floods of June 2013.

The DRRO has become the place where many people in the region have turned to find the support needed to secure services and resources. Utilizing its local Catholic Charities agencies, the DRRO functions as a coordinated, centralized, established location where survivors find help navigating the programs proven to assist in the aftermath of the disaster.

Whether you have applied for the Flood Recovery Program, and even if you were not eligible or were denied assistance — the DRRO case managers will locate resources available to help you. A trained, compassionate case manager will work one-on-one with you to:

- Answer your questions
- Help you develop a plan to address your needs
- Connect with appropriate resources in your community
- See what financial assistance you may still be eligible for
- Connect to volunteer-based Long Term Recovery Groups & Construction Committees

- Advocate on your behalf with service and benefit providers.

The DRRO is connected to county and State agencies, churches, charitable, civic and community based organizations and works to administer and facilitate rapid assistance to the survivors. The DRRO slashes the delivery response time and navigates the client through the maze of social service agencies, long term recovery groups, and other resources identified. This can be a daunting task for a client, who is already overwhelmed by the disaster. Through proven experienced case management techniques, the DRRO's case managers help to resolve unmet needs and guide the client to a successful pre-disaster status.

The DRRO staff is comprised of Wilhelmina Murray-Davis, program director, Brandon Ronca, DRRO case manager for Herkimer and Montgomery County and Theresa Scanlon, DRRO case manager for Herkimer County. The DRRO has offices located in two counties, Herkimer and Montgomery. In Herkimer County, the office is located at the Catholic Charities of Herkimer County, 61 West Street, Ilion, NY 13357. The telephone number is 315-894-9917 ext. 240. Fax Number 315-894-6313. In Montgomery the office is located at the Fulton-Montgomery Catholic Charities, 1 Kimball Street, Amsterdam, NY 12010. The telephone number is 518-842-4202 ext. 3111. Fax Number 518-842-4245.

Hours of Operation: Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Cold weather management for animals

by George Looby, DVM

The winter of 2013-2014 is shaping up to go on record as one of the harshest in decades and all domestic creatures exposed to its rigors need help in making adjustments to survive the elements.

Winter is no less a problem for pets than it is for their larger companions out in the barnyard and for some maybe even more so.

One of the more dramatic situations encountered during the winter months is that involving the outside cat who finds warmth on the engine block of a car and curls up for a nap. The the owner then appears, gets into the vehicle, starts it up and the startled cat jumps into the fan or becomes entangled in the fan belt. Remember when there is any likelihood of this scenario playing out in your garage to bang on the hood or blow the horn before starting the car, a precaution too easily forgotten.

Most state and town roads are liberally salted during snow and ice storms and dogs in particular find the taste of salted snow particularly appealing which, when consumed in any quantity, can be toxic. Today the cocktails being applied to roads contain even more potentially lethal combinations that must be avoided at all costs. It is the owner's duty and responsibility to keep your animal away from such materials. When bringing a dog in from an airing in areas where ice melters have been used wipe the paws or wash the paws in water to insure that when the paws are licked such material is not ingested. Ice and snow build up between the toes is another reason for wiping the feet after a walk in the snow, it is an irritant, may cause abrasions and lacerations and contribute to frostbite. Some breeds of dogs have been specifically bred to withstand the rigors of arctic-like winters but most have not so that reality must be dealt with.

With winter comes a spike in the incidence of house or barn fires due to the increase in the use space heaters. Use of these heaters must be continually monitored to insure that they are not compromised in any way. Not only may tipping result in fires but animals rubbing against them may result in severe burns. Along with many other potential winter hazards, carbon monoxide detectors must be checked regularly to insure that they are in proper working order, CO2 can be as lethal to animals as it can to humans.

Extra precautions should be taken to insure that elderly pets or pets whose health is compromised are handled in such a way as to avoid making existing problems worse by subjecting them to frigid conditions. Animals suffering from arthritic conditions are much more likely to show the effects of frigid conditions. Other common conditions that may be adversely affected by cold weather include diabetes, heart disease, kidney disease, and diseases such as Cushings.

Some animals because of size, temperament, preference or other factors may have to live outside during the winter. In these instances insure that the ration is boosted to increase the caloric intake and that there is an good supply of fresh unfrozen water available at all times. Electrically heated water bowls are available. It is interesting to note that water in plastic bowls does not freeze as readily as it does in ones made of stainless steel.

Winters are not always easy but they are manageable if animal owners prepare for it in a systematic way and are willing to take the extra time required to insure that the few simple steps suggested are followed.

~Gap Elimination Adjustment: As budget time approaches once again, the issue of the state's Gap Elimination Adjustment(GEA) is making news. The GEA is essentially an annual aid "take back" by the state, to balance the state budget. The GEA has significantly reduced the total amount of state aid that Fort Plain has received since 2010-2011. Please visit our home page at www.fortplain.org for more information in the form of a video presentation.

~Students of the Month: Congratulations to Harry Hoag Students of the Month for December.....Kyra Atkins, Haylee Cook, Antonio Mabbett, Morgan Stone, Taven Tamsett, and Levi Thomas....and for January.....Jenna Conley, Jasmine Fonda, Andan Gomez, Madeline Heroth, Emma Payack, Derek Prevost, Nathan Buley and Madison Delgado. The honored Jr/Sr High School Students of the Month for January were.....Mackenzie Wintermute, Jenna Dillenbeck, Julia Stockwell, Hannah Staples, ShyAnn Snyder, and Josh Cechnicki.

~Salvation Army Sends Thanks: What a year 2013 was! It certainly had its challenges, but it also had many blessings. The upper Mohawk Valley community's willingness to help with the Red Kettle Drive was certainly one of those blessings. The grand total that was collected in all of our kettles this year was $5,627.58. We express our deepest appreciation to the groups that manned the Price Chopper kettle in Palatine: St. Johnsville Central School, Fort Plain Central School, and the Valley Alliance Church. Again this year, the Fort Plain Central School Student Council, under the leadership of Lisa Trembley, rang the bell at Nice and Easy. Each one of these groups did a tremendous job and were essential to our success. Many thanks to all who worked and donated.

~Math Facts Results: The Harry Hoag School Math Facts Club met again in January, with some terrific results! Students who solved 100 arithmetic problems in 5 minutes or less were: Evan Crouse, Sarah LaComb, Ella Logan, Rob Rogers, Sophia Rogers, Cameron Tamsett, and Ian Zuppari. Honorable Mention went to second grader Ethan Hubbard who finished in 5 min 10 sec. The fastest time for the month was Ella Logan with 2 min 2 sec in Multiplication!

~A Message from Jr/Sr High School Student Council: The Student Council was very busy during December. We arranged volunteers to ring the bell at the very generous Nice and Easy, and were able to raise $1558.35 for the Salvation Army. In addition, we were able to raise $942.00 for the DSS-Foster Care and Needy Children Fund through our Annual Elf Auction. During this time, we also hosted a Spirit Week. Classes competed and daily events, a Pep Rally was held, there was a tree decorating contest, and a can drive for the Fulmont Center. Thank you to everyone who helped to make these events and program successful! Lisa Trembley, Advisor

~DARE Graduation: Fifty-two sixth grade students crossed the "stage" in the Harry Hoag gym recently to receive their certificate of completion for the DARE program. The ten-week program of Drug Abuse Resistance Education is sponsored by the Montgomery County Sheriffs Department. The graduation ceremony was led by the DARE instructor, Deputy Bill Pitcher. After a procession of the students, the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Crystal Smith, Bailey Battisti and Jenna Reese. Opening remarks were given by Superintendent of Schools Douglas Burton. Three of the sixth graders were selected to read their DARE essays out loud: Taylor Hoffman, Willow MaGinnis, and Luke Doxtater. The students spoke about all that they had learned, and what personal lessons they were taking away from the experience. Following some remarks by Deputy Pitcher, he was joined by Undersheriff Peter Vroman, Principal Cathy Brucker, Mr. Burton, and sixth grade teacher Pat Hanifin in handing out diplomas to the students. There were many families and friends in attendance, to wish the students well and congratulate them on their achievement. The students were grateful for all of the support and excited to be able to share their DARE experience with others.

~College Goal NY: The guidance department at the high school recently sponsored the annual College Goal NY financial aid assistance day. In order to receive financial aid for college, families must begin by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), which takes about 30 minutes to complete. College Goal NY is a program that brings financial aid counselors together with students and families, to provide both information and hands-on assistance with filling out the online financial aid forms. The FAFSA is used to qualify students for assistance with expenses for tuition, books, housing, and other expenses. All students who attended the College Goal NY event at the high school on February 8th were entered to win a $500 college scholarship.

~Spring Into a Healthier You: at the annual Community Health & Wellness Fair! Join us on April 5th from 9:00 a.m. to noon and watch the SALAD WARS! Judging will be at 11:00 with free samples of each salad, prepared by local chefs! Take the opportunity to sign up for the 6-week BIGGEST LOSER contest with registration and weigh-in at the Health Fair on April 5th. The fair will also feature healthy foods, demonstrations, family activities, free gifts, and tons of information. If you would to participate, or volunteer, call the school at 993-4000 #1003.

~Student Receives Cross Country Honors: Jordan Ahrens was recently named to the New York State Class C Third Team for cross country. This prestigious honor came after his successful bid in the state meet. Jordan was the first Canajoharie-Fort Plain runner to qualify for states since 2005. Additionally, Jordan was named co-winner of the Fulmont Roadrunner's Club Runner of the Year award. He was also an all-star in the Western Athletic Conference.

~Harry Hoag Principal Search Underway: Following the retirement announcement of current principal Cathy Brucker, the school board has now begun its search for a new elementary principal, who will assume the position by Mrs. Brucker's June 30th retirement date. There will be several principal search committees, made up of faculty, school-related personnel, and community members. The committees will work to screen potential candidates, interview those selected, and make recommendations to the Board of Education as to whom they feel is the best candidate to lead the Harry Hoag School. The board intendeds to make a June appointment.

~Wrestling Team Scores Big: The Canajoharie-Fort Plain wrestling team went 4-1 at the Herkimer duals on Jan 25th. C-FP took the title, beating out Fonda-Fultonville, Johnstown, Holland Patent, and Mount Markham. T.J. Hazzard, Anthony Brock, and Jordan Griswold all went 5-0, with Jon Payack, Tangen Rush, and Ed Rolle went 4-1. Gordon Trahan also went 4-1 and earned his 100th career victory.

~Gram Lorraine Program Serves 35 Local Families: Thanks to the generosity of many local donors, the Gram Lorraine Christmas Program was able to supply 100 children from 35 different area families. Each child received a minimum of four pieces of clothing and a toy, book or game.

~PreK Explores a Story: Mrs. Kennedy's and Mrs. Colvin's PreK class read the classic tale "The Little Red Hen." The students also acted out the characters to help the story come to life. They shared in making their own bread, just like the little red hen did. The children learned about the process of making bread, and used their sense of smell to experience how wonderful the bread smelled while it was baking. Unlike the characters in the story, the PreK students worked together. They had help reading the recipe. They all shared in combining the ingredients in the bread pan. The bread was baked in a bread maker. Then, the finished bread was shared with the whole class. The children had a choice of either grape jelly or butter to enjoy with their bread. The entire class learned a lot from the story and all of the activities that went with it. The lesson was a part of English Language Arts Domain 3 of Common Core.

Whatchamacallits

Soapstone (also known as steatite) is a type of metamorphic rock. Soapstone is often used as an insulator for electrical components, due to its durability and electrical characteristics and because it can be pressed into complex shapes before firing.

The use of this particular piece of soapstone is unclear, but it is thought to be a foot warmer, often used when out on a buggy ride (similar to a hot water bottle.) The handle would have been for carrying the stone after it was heated, when it would be too hot to touch.

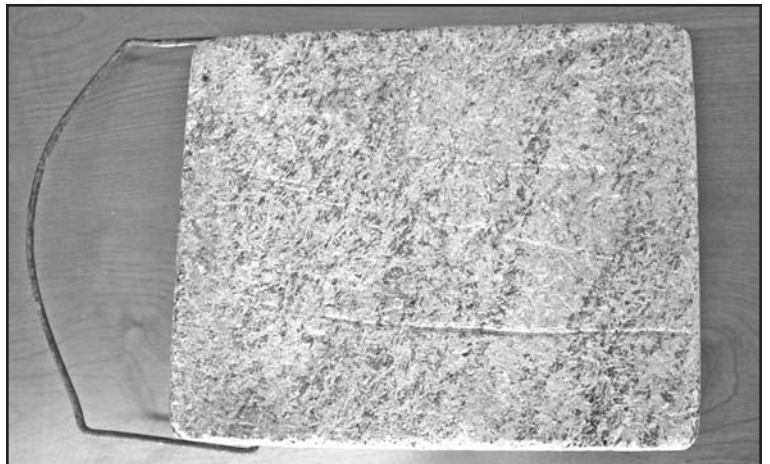

Today, soapstone is used for inlaid designs, sculpture, coasters, and kitchen countertops and sinks. The Inuit sometimes use soapstone for traditional carvings. Certain Native American tribes make bowls, cooking slabs, and other objects from soapstone.

What are mortgage discount points?

Discount points allow you to lower your interest rate. They are essentially prepaid interest. With each point equaling 1 percent of the total loan amount. Generally, for each point paid on a 30-year mortgage, the interest rate is reduced by 1/8 of a percentage point. When shopping for loans, ask lenders for an interest rate with 0 points and then see how much the rate decreases with each point paid. Discount points are smart if you plan to stay in a home for some time since they can lower the monthly loan payment. Points are tax deductible when you purchase a home and you may be able to negotiate for the seller to pay for some of them.
